

Meal & Accommodation Policy

| Field          | Details                 |
|----------------|-------------------------|
| Document ID    | BT-FIN-004              |
| Version        | 2.0                     |
| Effective Date | 1 April 2026            |
| Policy Owner   | Finance Controller      |
| Department     | Finance                 |
| Approved By    | Chief Financial Officer |
| Next Review    | 31 March 2027           |

1. Purpose

This policy sets the limits for meals and hotel stays during business travel and for certain office situations, so that spending is reasonable and consistent.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees. It supports BT-FIN-001 (Travel & Expense Policy). Levels A, B and C are defined in that policy.

3. City Categories

- Tier 1 cities: Delhi NCR, Mumbai, Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Kolkata and Pune.
- Other cities: All other locations in India.

4. Main Rules

4.1 Hotel Accommodation (per night, including taxes)

| Level   | Tier 1 Cities | Other Cities |
|---------|---------------|--------------|
| Level A | ₹5,500        | ₹4,000       |
| Level B | ₹7,500        | ₹5,500       |
| Level C | ₹10,000       | ₹7,500       |

- Hotels must be booked through the Beacon Travel Desk.
- For international travel, limits are USD 150 per night for Levels A and B, and USD 220 for Level C (BT-FIN-001).
- For stays longer than 7 consecutive nights, a serviced apartment may be used within the same nightly limit.
- If an employee stays with friends or relatives instead of a hotel, a fixed allowance of ₹1,000 per night is paid without bills.
- Early check-in, late check-out, laundry (for trips shorter than 5 nights), minibar and room entertainment are not reimbursed.

4.2 Meals During Travel (per day)

| Location      | Daily Limit |
|---------------|-------------|
| Tier 1 cities | ₹1,200      |
| Other cities  | ₹900        |
| International | USD 50      |

- The limits are the same for all levels.
- If the hotel provides breakfast, ₹200 is deducted from the daily meal limit.
- Alcohol is not reimbursed.
- Bills are required for meals. Where bills are not available, a maximum of ₹300 per day may be claimed with a self-declaration.

4.3 Client Meals

- Client meals are allowed up to ₹2,500 per person with prior manager approval.
- The names of attendees and the business reason must be recorded on the claim.

4.4 Team Meals

- Team lunches or dinners are allowed up to ₹800 per person, twice per quarter per team, with Department Head approval.

4.5 Late-Working Meal Allowance

- Employees who are required to work beyond 8:30 PM, with prior manager approval, may claim ₹350 for dinner (see BT-HR-002).
- This allowance is not available on work-from-home days.

4.6 Claiming

Meal and hotel expenses are claimed as part of the travel expense report within 10 working days of returning (BT-FIN-001). Late-working and team meals are claimed under BT-FIN-002.

5. Exceptions

- If hotels are unavailable within the limit due to events or festivals, the Department Head may approve up to 25% above the limit, provided the Travel Desk records the reason.
- The CFO may approve higher limits for client visits that need specific locations or security.

---

Internal Use Only
Beacon Technologies Pvt. Ltd.
Synthetic document created for a technology prototype.