Version	2.1
Effective Date	1 April 2025
Policy Owner	Head of Human Resources
Department	Human Resources
Approved By	Chief Executive Officer
Next Review	31 March 2027

1. Purpose

This policy sets out standard working hours, attendance recording and related rules so that teams can plan their work and employees are treated consistently.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all permanent employees and probationers of Beacon Technologies Pvt. Ltd. Employees on approved work-from-home days must also follow BT-HR-003.

3. Working Hours

Item	Standard
Working days	Monday to Friday
Office hours	9:30 AM to 6:30 PM
Lunch break	1 hour (unpaid, not counted as working time)
Daily working time	8 hours
Core collaboration hours	11:00 AM to 4:00 PM
Weekly off	Saturday and Sunday

4. Main Rules

4.1 Office Attendance

- Beacon follows a hybrid model. Employees are expected to be in the office at least 3 days per week.
- Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are anchor days. Employees must be in the office on these days unless they are on leave, on business travel or have an approved exception.
- Attendance is recorded through the biometric reader at the office or by marking attendance on the Beacon People Portal for approved work-from-home days.

4.2 Late Arrival

- A grace period of 15 minutes is given. Arrival or login after 9:45 AM is a late mark.
- Each employee is allowed 3 late marks per calendar month without any action.
- From the 4th late mark in a month, half a day of annual leave is deducted for each late mark.

4.3 Full Day, Half Day and Absence

Hours Worked	Attendance Status
8 hours or more	Full day present
4 hours to less than 8 hours	Half day (half day of leave is deducted)
Less than 4 hours	Absent (full day of leave or LOP)

4.4 Attendance Regularisation

- If an employee forgets to mark attendance, they may request regularisation on the People Portal within 3 working days.
- A maximum of 3 regularisation requests are allowed per month.

4.5 Overtime and Compensatory Off

1. Beacon does not pay overtime.
2. An employee who is asked by their manager to work on a weekend or public holiday earns compensatory off (comp-off): a half day for 4 or more hours of work, and a full day for 8 or more hours.
3. The manager must approve the work in advance, and comp-off must be used within 30 days. Unused comp-off lapses.
4. Business travel on a weekend or public holiday counts as work for comp-off purposes (see BT-FIN-001).

4.6 Late Working

- Employees who are required to work beyond 8:30 PM, with prior manager approval, may claim a late-working meal allowance of ₹350 (see BT-FIN-004).
- Company-provided cab service is available for employees leaving the office after 9:00 PM. Cabs must be booked through the People Portal by 6:00 PM on the same day.

4.7 Unauthorised Absence

- Absence without approval or information for 3 consecutive working days will result in a written notice from HR.
- Absence for 5 consecutive working days without information is treated as absconding (see BT-HR-005).

5. Exceptions

- Employees with medical conditions or caregiving needs may request adjusted working hours from HR. Approval is given by the Head of HR and the Department Head.
- Teams supporting production systems may follow shift schedules approved by the Department Head. Shift employees are not covered by the 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM timing.
- Attendance rules are relaxed during office closures, such as extreme weather or local emergencies, as announced by HR.
