

Work From Home Policy

Field	Details
Document ID	BT-HR-003
Version	2.0
Effective Date	1 July 2025
Policy Owner	Head of Human Resources
Department	Human Resources
Approved By	Chief Executive Officer
Next Review	30 June 2026

1. Purpose

This policy defines when and how employees may work remotely, and the conditions that apply to protect productivity, information security and fairness across teams.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all confirmed employees whose roles can be performed remotely. It should be read together with BT-HR-002 (Attendance), BT-IT-001 (Passwords), BT-IT-002 (Laptops), BT-IT-003 (VPN) and BT-FIN-002 (Reimbursement).

3. Work Models

Model	Description	Approval Needed
Hybrid (standard)	Up to 2 days per week remote, minimum 3 days in office	Reporting Manager
Fully Remote	All working days remote	Department Head and Head of HR, in writing
Temporary WFH	Short-term remote work for medical or emergency reasons	Reporting Manager

4. Main Rules

4.1 Eligibility

- Only employees who have completed their 3-month probation are eligible for hybrid work.
- Employees on a Performance Improvement Plan are not eligible until the plan is closed.
- Roles that require physical presence (for example, IT hardware support and office administration) are not eligible. The Department Head decides which roles qualify.

4.2 Hybrid Work

- Employees may work from home up to 2 days per week. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday are anchor days and should be office days (see BT-HR-002).
- Remote days must be marked on the Beacon People Portal and agreed with the reporting manager in advance.

4.3 Fully Remote Work

- Fully remote arrangements require written approval from the Department Head and the Head of HR.
- Approvals are reviewed every 6 months and may be withdrawn with 30 days' notice.
- Fully remote employees must still attend in-person meetings or events when called with at least 5 working days' notice.

4.4 Temporary Work From Home

- Employees may work remotely for up to 10 working days per calendar year for medical reasons, family emergencies or local disruptions. The reporting manager approves this.
- Employees in probation may use temporary WFH for a maximum of 3 days, with manager approval.

4.5 Availability and Conduct

- Remote employees must be available online during core hours, 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM, and follow standard working hours.
- Employees must attend scheduled video meetings with their camera on, unless the meeting owner says otherwise.
- Remote work must be done from a quiet, private place where company information cannot be seen or overheard.

4.6 Technology and Security Requirements

1. Remote work must be done only on the company-issued laptop (BT-IT-002). Personal laptops and computers must not be used for work.
2. Employees working remotely must connect to the company VPN when accessing internal systems (BT-IT-003).
3. Multi-factor authentication and password rules in BT-IT-001 apply at all times.
4. Public Wi-Fi may only be used when the VPN is connected.
5. Any security incident while working remotely must be reported within 2 hours (BT-IT-005).

4.7 Allowances

- Remote employees receive an internet allowance, claimed through the Beacon Finance Portal (see BT-FIN-002):
 - Hybrid employees: ₹1,000 per month, if they worked remotely for at least 8 days in that month.
 - Fully remote employees: ₹1,500 per month.
- Fully remote employees also receive a one-time home-office setup allowance of ₹10,000.
- No other utility costs (electricity, rent, etc.) are reimbursed.

4.8 Location

Remote work must be performed from within India. Working from another country is not allowed unless the employee is on approved business travel.

5. Exceptions

- The Head of HR may approve additional remote days for employees with documented medical or caregiving needs.
- Department Heads may require all team members to be in the office for key business events, with at least 2 working days' notice.
- Probationers may be given a hybrid arrangement in exceptional cases with approval from the Department Head and the Head of HR.
