

Employee Exit Policy

Field	Details
Document ID	BT-HR-005
Version	1.4
Effective Date	1 April 2025
Policy Owner	Head of Human Resources
Department	Human Resources
Approved By	Chief Executive Officer
Next Review	31 March 2027

1. Purpose

This policy explains the process to follow when an employee leaves Beacon Technologies Pvt. Ltd., including notice, handover, clearance and final settlement.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all permanent employees who resign, retire or whose services end. Termination for misconduct is handled under the Code of Conduct, but clearance and settlement steps in this policy still apply.

3. Notice Period

Employee Category	Notice Period
Employees in probation	30 days
Confirmed employees	60 days
Directors and above	90 days

4. Main Rules

4.1 Resignation

- Employees must submit their resignation on the Beacon People Portal and inform their reporting manager.
- HR will acknowledge the resignation within 2 working days and confirm the last working day.
- Resignation can be withdrawn within 5 working days of submission with manager and HR approval.

4.2 Serving Notice and Buyout

- Employees are expected to serve the full notice period.
- Early release or notice buyout may be approved by the Department Head and the Head of HR. For buyout, the employee pays one day of fixed salary (monthly fixed salary divided by 30) for each unserved notice day.
- Annual leave during notice is limited to 5 days, with manager approval. Any leave without pay during notice extends the notice period by the same number of days.

4.3 Handover

- A handover plan must be shared with the reporting manager within the first week of notice.
- All project documents, access details and pending work must be handed over before the last working day.

4.4 Exit Interview

HR conducts an exit interview during the last week of employment. Feedback is confidential.

4.5 Clearance Checklist

All items must be cleared on or before the last working day.

Department	Items
IT	Return laptop and accessories (BT-IT-002); accounts, email and VPN access are disabled at 6:30 PM on the last working day
Finance	Settle travel advances and pending claims; return the corporate card (BT-FIN-003); recoveries if any
HR	Return ID card and access card; complete exit interview
Admin	Return any other company assets

4.6 Full and Final Settlement

Full and final (F&F) settlement is completed within 45 days from the last working day. It includes:

- Salary up to the last working day
- Leave encashment (see 4.7)
- Gratuity, if eligible (5 years of service)
- Less: notice shortfall, unreturned assets, unsettled advances, corporate card dues, and any learning cost repayment (BT-HR-004)

4.7 Leave Encashment

Unused annual leave is encashed up to a maximum of 20 days, calculated as monthly basic salary divided by 30 for each day. Sick leave and comp-off are not encashed.

4.8 Documents

- The relieving letter and experience letter are issued within 7 working days after the F&F settlement is completed.
- Employees can download their Form 16 and Provident Fund details from the People Portal.

4.9 Absconding

If an employee is absent for 5 consecutive working days without information, HR sends a notice by email and courier. If there is no response within 3 working days, the employee is treated as having absconded. F&F settlement is held until clearance is completed.

5. Exceptions

- Employees terminated for serious misconduct (such as fraud or data theft) are not eligible for notice buyout or experience letter. Statutory dues are paid as per law.
- Notice period may be waived by the Head of HR in cases of medical emergency or relocation for family reasons.
- Employees who are in the middle of a critical project may be asked to extend notice by up to 30 days by mutual agreement.
